The last historic appearance of the Shechinah Glory was to the Apostle John in

Revelation 1:12-16

Ephesians chapter One explains how we as followers of Christ are to reflect the Shechinah Glory.

In verse 6 the believer is to the praise of the glory of His grace.

In verse 12 the believer should be to the praise of His glory

In verse 14 the believer is unto the praise of His glory

In verse 18 the believer is the glory of His inheritance in the saints.

Summary:

In the New Testament, the appearance of the Shechinah Glory was primarily manifested in the person of Jesus Christ. He was the new visible manifestation of God's presence.

Today, it is the obligation of the believer to reflect that glory.
